

Hawai`i CERC Project:

Cultures of Engagement in Residential Care

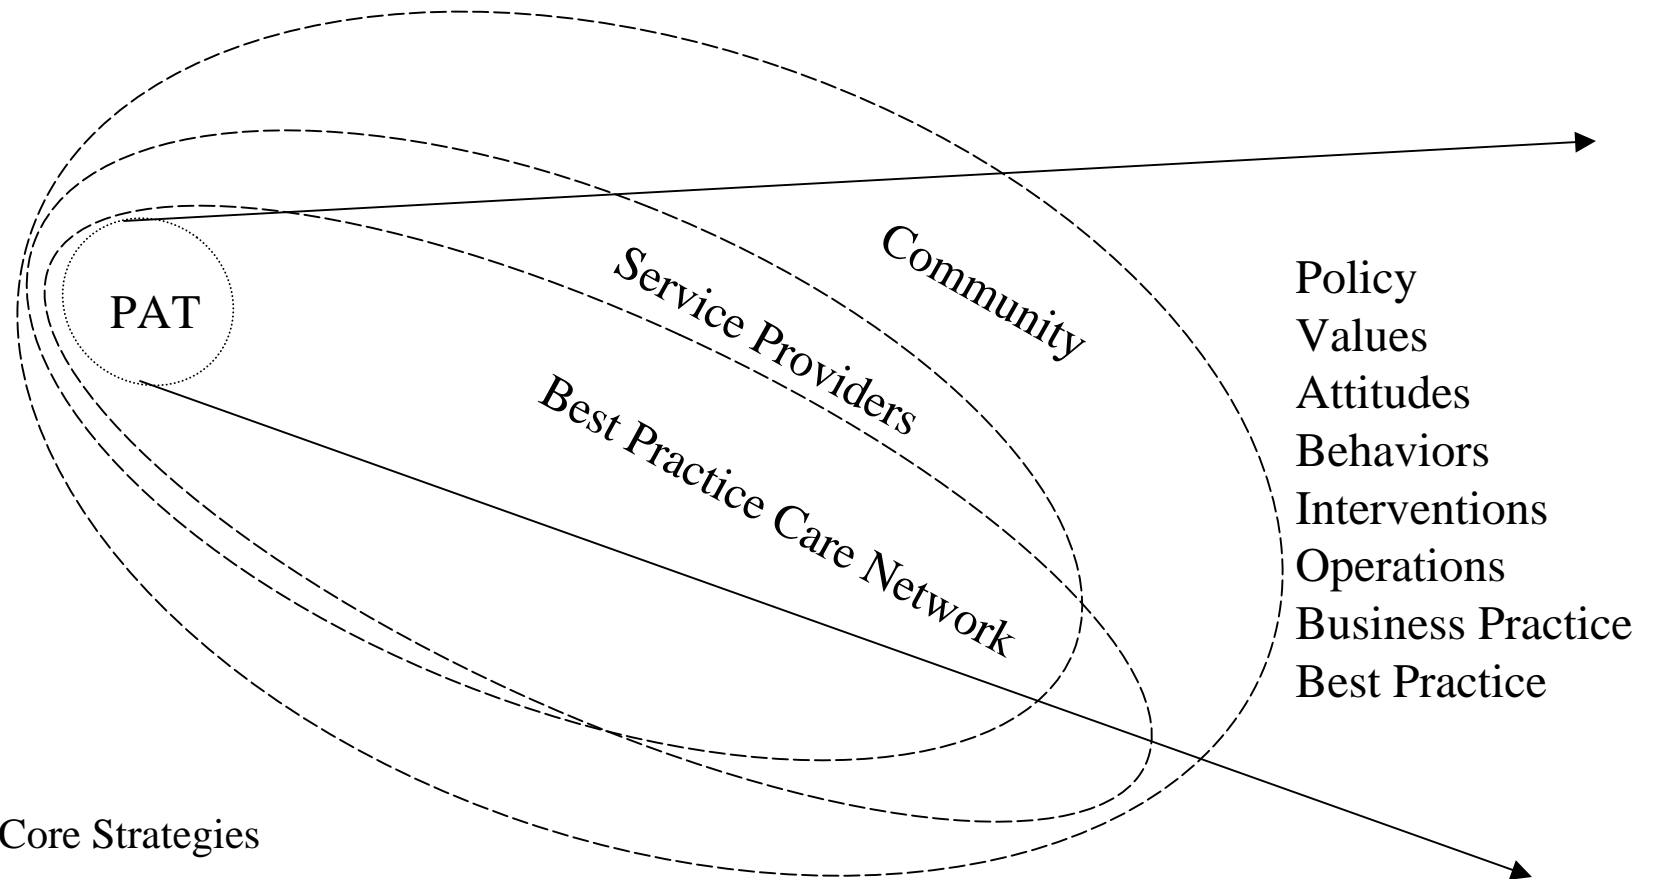

A Grant Project out of CAMHD's Practice Development Initiative to continue refining best practices and use of evidence based services for children, adolescents and families receiving services through the Hawai`i system of care.

Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA)-
State Infrastructure Grant (SIG) –Alternatives to Seclusion & Restraints

August 2005

Approved 8/15/05

Hawai'i CERC Project: Cultures of Engagement in Residential Care

NTAC Core Strategies

1. Leadership towards organizational change
2. Invite and include consumers and families
3. Use data to inform practice
4. Develop your workforce
5. Implement assessment and prevention tools
6. Make debriefing rigorous